Our Artists

Sarah Beth Briggs' professional career was launched at the age of eleven when she became the youngest ever finalist in the BBC Young Musician of the Year. Four years later she gained international recognition as joint winner of the International Mozart Competition in Salzburg.

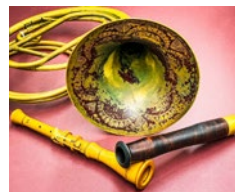

The Tedesca Quartet was formed in 2010 and has a wealth of experience from a wide range of music-making at the highest level and quickly established a reputation for performances of maturity and integrity. They play regularly for music clubs and societies through the UK. Their first foreign performance was in Italy in 2022.

The wide repertoire of the Katona Twins duo spans from Bach to Piazzolla's tango music and from pop, rock and jazz to their own compositions. They have travelled throughout the world enthusing audiences and performed live to half a million people in arenas across Europe. Their tenth CD Hollywood and Swing was released in 2020.

The Revolutionary Wind Machine was formed in 2022 to explore and promote chamber music for wind instruments from the classical era through to the early twentieth century. Wonderful chamber music is brought back to life and presented here on period instruments.

Emmanuel Bach & Jenny Stern Described as an 'outstandingly well-matched duo', they have recorded three CDs, most recently 'Lennox In Paris', an album of British and French works, which was widely praised.

Welcome to Worcester Concert Club

Worcester Concert Club promotes live concerts by top quality professional musicians and organises music-related educational events at Huntingdon Hall, a historic building in the centre of Worcester. We regularly provide a platform for outstanding young players, singers and groups with local connections.

Membership, by annual subscription, is open to all. Joining the club shows your support for live music and helps us to obtain grants which subsidise our work. Benefits of membership include season tickets to the Club's Sunday concerts, workshops and masterclasses.

... with your help

Worcester Concert Club is a growing and thriving organisation. We are grateful for your support especially as we recover from the effects of COVID. We hope that you will enjoy the season ahead and that you will encourage friends and relatives to join us, too.

Worcester Concert Club would like to thank

The Elmley Foundation
Worcester Arts Council • John Ireland Trust
Making Music
for their generous financial support

We are also indebted to the management of Huntingdon Hall for their encouragement; the promotion of our work in their brochures and the mainly voluntary front-of-house staff who make everyone so very welcome.
