Our Artists

Worcestershire's Volante Strings is a chamber style string orchestra now in its 14th year. Violinist George Ewart will be their guest leader and director in this concert which celebrates Britten's centenary, gives a rare performance of Telemann's Don Quixote Suite and allows Huntingdon Hall's organ to shine in a Handel concerto.

The Badke Quartet, celebrating its 10th anniversary this year, is widely recognised as one of Britain's finest string quartets. The Quartet regularly performs at all the major concert venues and music festivals.

The 'Fontanella' Recorder Group, with five of the UK's leading specialist recorder players, have been delighting audiences of all ages for the past ten years in programmes designed to bring the history of this remarkable instrument to life. Their lively concerts span six hundred years of music to the present day, performing on an array of instruments of every shape and size from their beautiful 15-piece renaissance consort to their set of Paetzold 'square' basses.

The 'Two Michaels' are a long established duo who have given numerous recitals throughout England, and also, a most successful concert in Girona Spain. They have been wonderfully received everywhere they have played, and their CD, Rondino [Volume 1], has also proved very popular.

Acclaimed by the Daily Telegraph as 'a pianist of amazing power and panache' Clare Hammond comes to perform a diverse programme. Framed by two dances, the Bach-Brahms Chaconne and Ginastera's Danzas Argentinas, her programme include popular works by Mendelssohn, Schubert, Satie and Mozart.

Described by the critics as 'consistently impressive, the Erato Piano Trio is fast establishing itself as one of the leading young chamber groups in the UK with concerts at venues such as the Purcell Room, Zurich Tonhalle and Prague's Martinu Hall.

Welcome to Worcester Concert Club

Worcester Concert Club promotes live concerts by top quality professional musicians and organises music-related educational events at Huntingdon Hall, a historic building in the centre of Worcester. We regularly provide a platform for outstanding young players, singers and groups with local connections.

Membership, by annual subscription, is open to all. Joining the club shows your support for live music and helps us to obtain grants which subsidise our work. Benefits of membership include season tickets to the Club's Sunday concerts and educational workshops.

... with your help

Worcester Concert Club is a growing and thriving organisation. Our last season was highly successful both artistically and in terms of audience and membership numbers. We are grateful for your continued support. We hope that you will enjoy the season ahead and that you will encourage friends and relatives to join us, too.

Worcester Concert Club would like to thank

The Elmley Foundation

The Mazars Charitable Trust

William A. Cadbury Charitable Trust

The Grimmitt Trust • Worcester Arts Council

for their generous financial support

We are also indebted to the management of Huntingdon Hall for their encouragement; the promotion of our work in their brochures and the mainly voluntary front-of-house staff who make everyone so very welcome.
