STALLS

Our Artists

Antony Peebles - After winning both the BBC and Debussy piano competitions in the early 1970s, Antony has enjoyed a most successful career having performed in 131 different countries. His recordings have received great critical acclaim. 'This artist is a true visionary' Daily Telegraph.

The Pro Musica String Trio have performed the major works of the classical repertoire as well as the music of early 20th composers such as Lennox Berkeley and Kodaly. During the coming season they will be performing in major venues and music clubs in the UK.

Katona Twins, Critically acclaimed by the Daily Telegraph as "the classical world's best known guitar duo", Peter and Zoltán Katona effortlessly transfer from strictly classical, into more popular musical genres. They have given recitals in the major concert venues throughout the world.

The Coull String Quartet have performed & broadcast extensively to great acclaim, throughout the UK, USA, Western Europe, the Far East & Australia. As part of today's recital we shall hear Derek Smith's Quartet no 4 which is influenced by 'Carolingia', a work that won for him the BBC/Henschel Quartet Prize in 2008.

Inspirational and innovative, the Astaria String Quartet continues to explore not only less well known works, but also aspects of audience development with their exciting new programme 'An Evening of Requests' and the commissioning of new music by local composers. '...Quality, sensitivity & freshness of playing...' BBC Radio 4

Concert Royal celebrate forty years of early music making in 2014. Playing period instruments and performing in historically-informed style, the ensemble recreate the elegant sound worlds of the baroque and classical eras. They have given hundreds of recitals throughout the UK, toured in Europe, USA and for the British Council in South America.

Worcester Concert Club 2014-2015

Classical Music in Huntingdon Hall

Welcome to Worcester Concert Club

Worcester Concert Club promotes live concerts by top quality professional musicians and organises music-related educational events at Huntingdon Hall, a historic building in the centre of Worcester. We regularly provide a platform for outstanding young players, singers and groups with local connections.

Membership, by annual subscription, is open to all. Joining the club shows your support for live music and helps us to obtain grants which subsidise our work. Benefits of membership include season tickets to the Club's Sunday concerts and educational workshops.

... with your help

Worcester Concert Club is a growing and thriving organisation. Our last season was highly successful both artistically and in terms of audience and membership numbers. We are grateful for your continued support. We hope that you will enjoy the season ahead and that you will encourage friends and relatives to join us, too.

Worcester Concert Club would like to thank

The Ernest Cook Trust • The Elmley Foundation

Baron Davenport Charity • The Gemma Trust

The Mazars Charitable Trust

The Rowlands Trust • Worcester County Council

for their generous financial support

We are also indebted to the management of Huntingdon Hall for their encouragement; the promotion of our work in their brochures and the mainly voluntary front-of-house staff who make everyone so very welcome.

Jane Austen's Musical England

Jane Austen was a keen amateur musician with a large collection of music. The programme includes songs and instrumental music drawn from her collection and contemporary sources. Brief extracts from letters and novels provide a fascinating glimpse into Jane Austen's musical world.

The programme includes music by Handel, JC Bach, and Dr Thomas Arne and his English contemporaries.
