The Maggini Quartet is one of the finest British string quartets and are renowned for their interpretations of British Repertoire. Its acclaimed recordings have won international awards and the Maggini's appear frequently in prestigious concert series at home and abroad.

The Carnival Band have been delighting audiences for over 30 years. The musicians stretch the rules of historically informed performances to breaking point, fusing music from the past with world, traditional and contemporary styles.

The Pelléas Ensemble have performed at leading UK venues and recently appeared live on BBC 3's 'In Tune'. They have established a reputation for performing recitals from memory which they believe creates an immediate and more intimate connection with their audience.

Soloist Rupert Marshall-Luck
Pianist Duncan Honeybourne

Rupert Marshall-Luck is hailed by BBC Music Magazine for his "handsome tone and laser-like tuning" and acclaimed by audiences and critics alike for the verve, commitment and intelligence of his performances. He appears as soloist and recitalist at major festivals and venues throughout the UK and abroad.

Trio Ébano comprises of flute, clarinet and bassoon. Challenged by the lack of repertoire for such a combination, they have been keen to explore lesser known works and composers. Trio Ébano have performed in all major UK venues including St Martin-in-the-Fields & Wigmore Hall.

Classical Music in Huntingdon Hall

Welcome to Worcester Concert Club

Worcester Concert Club promotes live concerts by top quality professional musicians and organises music-related educational events at Huntingdon Hall, a historic building in the centre of Worcester. We regularly provide a platform for outstanding young players, singers and groups with local connections.

Membership, by annual subscription, is open to all. Joining the club shows your support for live music and helps us to obtain grants which subsidise our work. Benefits of membership include season tickets to the Club's Sunday concerts, workshops and masterclasses.

... with your help

Worcester Concert Club is a growing and thriving organisation. Our last season was highly successful both artistically and in terms of audience and membership numbers. We are grateful for your continued support. We hope that you will enjoy the season ahead and that you will encourage friends and relatives to join us, too.

Worcester Concert Club would like to thank

The Elmley Foundation

Delius Trust

Worcester Arts Council

Worcester County Council

for their generous financial support

We are also indebted to the management of Huntingdon Hall for their encouragement; the promotion of our work in their brochures and the mainly voluntary front-of-house staff who make everyone so very welcome.
